

THE CRONoyIELD ($CRNY) TOKEN

A WHITEPAPER

INTRODUCTION

The crypto space, amplified by DeFi has a lot to offer and with this wide array of projects, none of them can ever guarantee yields; much more so, a viable source of passive income where hodling is more rewarding than ever. We have seen projects with the best of intentions, impeccable teams, the best marketing strategies and trusted partners – trouble is, not all of them met the amount of success they deserve.

We take inspiration from all of them and this project is an ode to all of those awesome people who might have fallen short in their endeavors but still grinding to bring the best experience ever to the investors and partners alike.

Enter CRONoyIELD, the first ever high APY protocol on the Cronos Chain! We take pride in being the first but along with that comes the “make or break” aspect of the project – either we are the first to succeed or the first to fail!

So what's the secret recipe for our guaranteed success? At this point in the crypto space, millions percent of APY is neither unheard nor unseen. Realistic? NO! 70,000% APY? It just got real!

We, at CRONoyIELD are very keen to deliver the vision of this project. We never make promises we cannot keep, we will never let our investors down. We are CRONoyIELD! We are AS REAL AS APY GETS!

HOW $CRNY WORKS

This CRONoyIELD Project is built on a firm foundation of staking. Why staking? Previous projects that offer the traditional passive income rely solely on reflections, which is not necessarily a bad thing. The downside is, there is not much of investors' engagement – sometimes resulting into loss of interest and reflection rewards are not worth it at times.

With staking, we are working as PARTNERS, not as the traditional project owners – investors model. HODL $CRNY and our auto-stake feature will work on your side. Be engaged and you will be rewarded in ways you never imagined before! How exactly?

Once you HODL $CRNY, automatic dividend payments are distributed to your wallet every 15 minutes! Say what?! Yes, distributed every 15 minutes! The distribution is proportional as to how much $CRNY you are holding including dividends. Holdings are rewarded, dividends are rewarded, therefore your income is COMPOUNDED! This is the 70,000% APY, AS REAL AS APY GETS! So, you think that's all there is? Not quite!

The CRONoyIELD Investor Fund (CIF) is an innovative protocol that rewards $CRNY Diamond Hand investors. 2% of every buy and sell transactions automatically gets stored in the CIF Wallet. Every 7 days, the accumulated funds in this wallet shall be re-distributed to all investors who never sold $CRNY tokens within that 7-day period. Upon launching, all of these features shall immediately take effect! On top of that, Staking Rewards DAPP will be live upon launching. PROMISES DELIVERED!

SUSTAINABILITY

One of the biggest questions surrounding APY tokens is about sustainability. When you see the APY figures, there is much amazement and hype at first glance. However, when the dust settles, we are left wondering how really sustainable the token is.

We, at CRONoyIELD, understand your concern. After all we are partners. There are only 3 compelling and fundamental principles that we would like to focus on.

First and foremost, given the volatility of the crypto space it is important to look at inflation and, in this regard, we already got you covered with auto-stake rewards and CIF. From the CRONoyIELD Team's side, we shall lock the liquidity for 100 years! How's that for additional protection?

Second, community engagement is very crucial. We believe that the community, is the most crucial element of any crypto project and we value you. That is why we incentivize you as you HODL $CRNY and we allocated 15% of the supply for sustainability. You are in fact the brand ambassadors for this project. The word of mouth from actual investors is a lot more potent and credible than anybody else.

Lastly, but definitely not the least, is maintaining visibility within the crypto space. When people lose interest, projects nose dive, the community suffers and most likely to abandon the project. Massive marketing and promotional drives on social media, maintaining good partnerships, pursuing new partnerships and innovation shall be our primary drivers to guide this project into a sustained success.

YOUR FUTURE WITH CRONoyIELD

YOU are the future of CRONoyIELD, no doubt! We can facilitate – but never dictate, we can implement – but never without your consensus, we can innovate – but not opposed to your long-term needs. The voice of the community is highly-valued by the CRONoyIELD Team and for that, you will always be heard.

The crypto space is a continuous shifting landscape. The need to adapt is very much in order but investment protection is of utmost priority.
